Sri Lankan Passports and Identity Certificates may be used for travel to the United States and other countries. An Identity Certificate is issued to residents of Sri Lanka whose national identity is in doubt. It is valid for only one year and expires on the holder's return to Sri Lanka. The majority of persons issued Identity Certificates are stateless Hill Country Tamils who originally were brought to Sri Lanka to work on tea plantations. Other persons whose families have lived in Sri Lanka for some time but who have never obtained Sri Lankan citizenship are also issued Identity Certificates by the Government and use them for foreign travel.
